ORDER ESTABLISHING DEADLINE TO ASSERT SECURED CLAIMS AGAINST ASSETS OF THE RECEIVERSHIP ESTATE

THIS MATTER is before the Court on the Court's own motion, and, after conferring with the Receiver during a hearing held at 2:00 p.m. on October 14, 2014, the Court has determined that the efficient administration of this case requires the imposition of a deadline for the filing of claims asserting a security interest in assets collected by the Receiver.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that:

- (a) Any party asserting a security interest in, or any other right to a priority in payment from, assets collected by the Receiver in this case ("Receivership Assets") must file a pleading with the Court asserting such interest on or before December 1, 2014;
- (b) Any such pleading must (i) describe with specificity the Receivership Assets from which the claimant asserts a priority in payment and (ii) attach copies of any and all documents demonstrating the security interest or otherwise supporting the claim for a priority in payment; and

(c) Any party's failure to file a pleading meeting the requirements set forth in this Order shall result in such party's claim, to the extent the claim is an allowed claim, being treated as a general unsecured claim against the Receivership Assets payable pursuant to the Order Approving Distribution Method and Distribution Procedure entered on October 14, 2014.

SO ORDERED.
